Chapter 1: Introduction and Background

1.1 Introduction

The Official Languages Act 2003 provides for the preparation by public bodies of a language scheme detailing the services which they will provide:

- Through the medium of Irish,
- Through the medium of English, and
- Through the medium of Irish and English and the measures to be adopted to ensure that any service not currently provided by the body through the medium of the Irish language will be so provided within an agreed timeframe.

In accordance with section 14(3) of the Act, language schemes remain in force for a period of 3 years or until such time as a new scheme is confirmed by the Minister for Tourism, Culture, Arts, Gaeltacht, Sport and Media whichever is the later.

1.2 Preparation and Content of the Scheme

In the preparation of this scheme, due regard has been given to the Guidelines issued by the Department of Tourism, Culture, Arts, Gaeltacht, Sport and Media. In addition, there has been a comprehensive process of consultation with relevant stakeholders.

The Irish Human Rights and Equality Commission is guided by the principle that the provision of Irish language services should be based on:

- The level of demand for specific services in the Irish language,
- The importance of a proactive approach to the provision of such services, and
- The resources, including human and financial resources, and the capacity of the body concerned to develop or access the necessary language capability.

This scheme has been formulated with the intention of ensuring that all relevant obligations under the Official Languages Act by the Irish Human Rights and Equality Commission will be fully addressed on an incremental basis, through this and future schemes.

This Scheme is predicated on all of the commitments in any previous scheme having been implemented. In the event of commitments in earlier schemes not having been fully implemented to date, this matter has been the subject of discussion with the Office of An Coimisinéir Teanga.

The time and effort put in by all concerned in this process is acknowledged and appreciated.

1.3 Commencement Date of the Scheme

This Scheme has been confirmed by the Minister for Tourism, Culture, Arts, Gaeltacht, Sport and Media. It commences with effect from 24 May 2021 and shall remain in force for a period of 3 years or until a new scheme has been confirmed, whichever is the later.

Chapter 2: Overview of the Irish Human Rights and Equality Commission

2.1 Mission and Objectives

About the Commission

The Irish Human Rights and Equality Commission (the Commission) is Ireland's national human rights and equality institution. Our purpose is to protect and promote human rights and equality in Ireland and to build a culture of respect for human rights, equality and cultural understanding in the State.

The Commission was established on 01 November 2014, as an independent public body with a mandate under the Irish Human Rights and Equality Commission Act 2014 (IHREC Act, 2014). The IHREC Act, 2014 gives the Commission a range of statutory powers for the protection and promotion of human rights and equality.

The IHREC Act, 2014 specifies that the Commission shall consist of not more than 15 and not less than 12 members, one of whom shall be the Chief Commissioner of the Commission. Commission members are appointed by Head of State, President Michael D. Higgins, following a resolution by both Houses of the Oireachtas and the members independently determine the Commission's policy and activity.

The structural independence of the Commission, in accordance with the Paris Principles, has been recognised in its "A" accreditation as an NHRI with the United Nations.

Vision

An inclusive Ireland where human rights and equality are respected, protected and fulfilled for everyone, everywhere.

Mission

To build a fair and inclusive society that protects and promotes human rights and equality in Ireland.

2.2 Main Functions

Section 10(1) of the IHREC Act 2014 sets out the overall functions of the Commission as:

- to protect and promote human rights and equality,
- to encourage the development of a culture of respect for human rights, equality and intercultural understanding in the State,
- to promote understanding and awareness of the importance of human rights and equality in the State,
- to encourage good practice in intercultural relations, to promote tolerance and acceptance of diversity in the State and respect for the freedom and dignity of each person, and
- to work towards the elimination of human rights abuses, discrimination and prohibited conduct.

Section 10(2) of the Act sets out a wide range of specific functions and powers through which the Commission can address its overall mandate.

2.3 Key Services

- Your Rights Service

2.4 Customers and Clients

The Commission through its free Your Rights service provides the public with information on rights and remedies made available under equality and human rights law in Ireland. This includes information on work-related discrimination, discrimination in relation to goods and services, discrimination in relation to education and human rights protections under Irish law.

Chapter 7: Monitoring and Review

The implementation of this scheme will be monitored and reviewed on a regular basis by Senior Management, along with key officers from areas such as Corporate Services and Strategic Engagement as appropriate.

The contact person for the scheme will be Fern Sheridan, Email: info@ihrec.ie.

A formal system for monitoring requests for services through Irish will be available and recorded in our Annual Report.

Chapter 8: Publicising of Agreed Scheme

This scheme will be publicised both internally and externally, through a press release initially. A bilingual version of the scheme will be made available on our website and circulated to all staff and appropriate agencies. Other means to publicise the scheme may also be used.

In addition, we will take every opportunity in our day to day interaction with customers to promote and publicise the services we provide in Irish through the following means:

- Directly informing customers on a proactive basis of the option of conducting business with us through Irish, for example, by the display of notices at reception areas indicating the Irish language services that are available;
- Prominently listing these services on our website;
- Signifying on selected guidelines, leaflets and application forms that these documents are also available in Irish, unless presented bilingually;
- Giving equal prominence to Irish and English language materials.

A copy of the agreed scheme will be forwarded to the Office of An Coimisinéir Teanga.
