To Be Completed By Students

Please include a caption describing what the image depicts– for example does it relate to a particular article in the UDHR? What does it communicate? (50 words) The caption will appear beside the image at the exhibition.

Please describe what message the image is trying to convey, why you chose to highlight this human right and what making human rights the focus of your CSPE Action Project has meant to you (100 words max). This statement will accompany the image on the IHRC's website.

Note!

Please also include name of teacher, names of students, class, year and school on soft copy CD version. This reduces the work involved in cataloguing the images.

To Be Completed By Teacher

Selected posters may be used to promote human rights in other contexts, for example, on the IHRC website.

I agree that the work submitted can be used for this purpose.

Photograph Consent Form for Parent/Guardian

The Irish Human Rights Commission (IHRC), as part of the Express Yourself! Young People Promoting Human Rights in Ireland, would like to post photographs of any activities to celebrate International Human Rights Day, 10 December 2012 that take place in participating schools on its website. The IHRC would also like to take photographs of the participating students at the Express Yourself! National Exhibition Launch on 27 February 2013.

The photographs and any reproductions, if used on a website, shall represent imaginary persons. No names shall be used or mentioned in connection with the photographs and no statement or wording shall be used or made which could be attributed to such imaginary persons.

I, the signatory below, therefore, undertake not to make any claim or demand on my own behalf or on behalf of any other person against the Irish Human Rights Commission in respect of the intended use of any of these photographs.

I also understand that no fee will be payable to me if photographs are used in the terms stated in this Consent Form or at all.
